DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species "b" in the reply filed on 31 August 2004 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 2-5, 12 and 18-24 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 31 August 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Number 4,693,475 (Keilhau) in view of U.S. Patent Number 4,759,546 (Steele, Jr., hereinafter Steele).

Figures 1 and 2 of Keilhau show a racquet handle. Conical member 10 corresponds to the recited first end; end 16 corresponds to the recited rear handle part and rotatable by a screw connection 12. Keilhau discloses his handle for use with racquets for ball games, but does not explicitly recite ping-pong paddles. See column 1, lines 15-19. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the Keilhau teaching to other ball racquets such as ping-pong paddles in view of Steele who discloses the old and well-known general fact that handle improvements designed for tennis racquets can be equally applied to other ball racquets such as ping-pong paddles. See column 1, lines 18-24.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 7-11 and 13-17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
